- It provides a range of academic and non-academic support services to its students which includes:
 - LLN support in the event when a student requiring language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) support, they will be advised to participate in an LLN class. A referral to external agency will be made if required.
 - One on one support provides students with additional guidance/instructions based on their individual needs. This is particularly valuable for students whose English is not their first language.
 - Catch-up classes when students are required to repeat the failed unit(s) due to compassionate and/or compelling reasons, catch-up classes can be provided. This can result in extension of enrolment duration. For overseas students only, PRISMS will be updated for student course variation report.
 - Reassessment students may be allowed to participate in a reassessment session subject to additional fee.
 - IT support provides students assistance with basic technology requests such as Microsoft Word, Learning Management System (LMS) if applicable.
 - Learning resources centre provides students with a range of recommended textbooks to further enhance their knowledge and skills
 - Welfare counselling students whose academic performance is affected by personal circumstances; they could be referred to a counsellor.
 - Mediation services or referral to these services.
- It assigns at least one staff member as the official point of contact for students, who has access to all up to date details of the college's support services.
- It has sufficient personnel to meet the needs of students enrolled in the college

Where additional support services required by students is beyond the capabilities of the college, students may be referred to external support services and referral to these services is free of charge. Please refer to External Support Services Register for more information.
